STORM CERAMICS

Celebrates over 15 years of producing unique handmade ceramics. All our items begin on the potter's wheel, a technique that reverts back to ancient times.

OUR BRAND

"Storm in a Teacup" celebrates over 15 years of producing unique handmade ceramics. All our items begin on the potter's wheel; a technique that reverts back to ancient times. Through a journey of experimenting with different clay bodies, form and texture, our shapes have evolved. Recently, we developed our own clay body for extra strength; which has a lustrous warmth seeping through the glazes. Our designs are often inspired by the primitive African ceremonial vessels, but adapted to contemporary living. There is no art for art's sake; all wares are fully functional and durable. "Storm in Teacups" pottery is removed from mass production, and a defining purpose - our ceramics are rather a reflection of the natural beauty and vibrancy of South Africa."It is our aim to keep our ceramics uncomplicated and timeless. Having grown up on a sheep farm in the Eastern Cape, my work is informed by rural landscapes, clear blue skies, succulents and lichen covered rocks which lie in silent elegance of ages gone by."
